

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Life at home should not be violated with unwanted telephone calls. Indiana's law has greatly improved the privacy that one should expect at home. I used to receive 8-12 calls per week and now there are weeks that I do not receive one call.